Release and Liability Agreement:

We require a release and liability agreement because of the inherent risk associated with working closely with animals and participating in activities outside. If parents/guardians chose not to sign this form, acknowledging that Whispering Brook Farm cannot be held accountable to any injuries a child may receive due to the nature of working with animals, the child will not be permitted to participate in any activities working closely with animals. Please read and discuss the safety regulations below with your child; we will assume that upon entering programs at Whispering Brook Farm that children will understand basic animal safety, and that children will be responsive to any necessary behavior corrections for the safety of the children, mentors, and animals. Children may be removed from programming if dangerous behavior is not corrected.

Safety Regulations:

The programs that we at Whispering Brook Farm offer involve programming outside and working closely with animals including, but not limited to, horses, goats, chickens, and ducks. Children are asked to not carry loose items on or near any animals which may fall, blow away, flap in the wind, bounce, or make sharp noises, possibly scaring the animals. They must not make sharp noises, such as screaming or yelling, which may scare the animals. Some examples are; cameras, hats not securely fastened under chin, toys, and purses. Parents/Guardians are asked to acknowledge that they are aware that working with animals always has the potential for injury

Parents/Guardians are asked to verify that they understand that the Farm is not responsible for total or partial acts, occurrences, or elements of nature that can scare an animal or cause it to fall, or react in some other unsafe way. Some examples are: thunder, lightning, rain, wind, water, wild or domesticated animals, insects, reptiles, which may walk, run, or fly by or near, or bite or sting a animal or person; irregular footing- on out-of- door groomed or wild land which is subject to constant change in condition according to weather, temperature, and natural and manmade changes in landscape. These are conditions of nature that are out of the control of Whispering Brook Farm, and so Whispering Brook Farm is not liable for any injuries or damages that may occur due to the condition of nature.

In signing this form parents/guardians will be acknowledging that they understand that Whispering Brook Farm cannot be held accountable for injuries received working with animals or due to the unpredictable nature of out door activities. This form verifies that parents/guardians are aware of the potential dangers involved with working with animals and outside in any programming that Whispering Brook Farm authorizes. The signing of this form confirms that Whispering Brook Farm is not liable for any injury that a child receives from an interaction with an animal without the supervision of a Whispering Brook Farm mentor as any official Whispering Brook Farm programs will have the supervision of an official mentor. In signing this form parents/guardians will be confirming that the farms safety regulations and policies have been read, discussed with the child, and both are in full understanding of all the regulations and know how to follow and implement them.

This form is only to be signed by all parties with a full understanding that this document becomes a legally binding contract between Whispering Brook Farm and the family of the child, this document waives legal rights including, but not limited to release, discharge, indemnification, and promise not to sue.
